Dewitt served as an Army/Air Corp pilot in World War II where he earned the respect and honor of his fellow soldiers. He enjoyed being outdoors and was fond of long walks and fishing.

DeWitt was always a caring and selfless man. Nothing made him happier than spending time with the ones he loved and seeing their smiling faces. His laugh was infectious and he was always ready to share a joke. He was slow to anger and to the end was full of life and joy.

He is survived by his wife, Frances Warren Aebly; his son, DeWitt Aebly, Jr.; his daughters, Donna Catlett and Sandra Dillier; step-daughters, Eve Williams and Pam Watkins; six grandchildren; six step-grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; five step-great-grandchildren; and a sister, Barbara Holmgren.

DeWitt's favorite hymn was "Beulah Land".

Beulah Land

I'm kind of homesick for a country
To which I've never been before.
No sad goodbyes will there be spoken
for time won't matter anymore.

Beulah Land, I'm longing for you and some day on thee I'll stand.
There my home shall be eternal.
Beulah Land -- Sweet Beulah Land

I'm looking now across the river
where my faith will end in sight.
There's just a few more days to labor.
Then I will take my heavenly flight.

We will always love and miss you, but we are joyous you've found your Beulah Land.
