

Ervard Framroze Maneckji Turel (Fali)

31 July 1928 - 23 February 2011

He was a man who spoke few words, respected by all, even the bees and birds.

*The most selfless person, few in the world one can find,
always thoughtful, appreciative and very kind.*

*The happiness of others gave him peace and joy,
through his quiet nature, he helped every girl and boy.*

*A self-made man, who lived his personal and professional life, -
based on the principles of good thoughts, words and deeds
to get him through any strife.*

*He understood the true meaning of life and what it was about,
his was a success in all areas – of that there is no doubt.*
