

PAUL VOGELSANG
Geologist

Responsibilities include providing a wide variety of geology and petrophysics to oil and gas companies, gas transmission companies, natural gas and liquids storage companies, banks, trusts and institutional investors.

Education

Minot State University (USA) 2016 – Bachelor of Arts in Geology
Minot State University (USA) 2017 – Master of Science in Management

Previous Positions

Western Potash Kronau, Saskatchewan, Canada [2022 - 2023]

Project Coordinator In charge of environmental and regulatory compliance, general project management and contractor coordination.

Buffalo Head Environmental Estevan, Saskatchewan, Canada [2018 - 2023]

Environmental Scientist Environmental monitoring, surface and groundwater sampling. Pre-disturbance site assessments. Environmental data analysis and interpretation for technical reports to meet client and regulatory specifications.

City of Regina Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada [2020 - 2021]

Environmental Technologist II Monitored and sampled potable water distribution system to ensure regulatory compliance. Handled and resolved potable water complaints for City of Regina customers. Ground water well drilling and installation. Groundwater and wastewater sampling and monitoring. Data analysis and interpretation for technical report writing. Coordinating and supervising third party contractors.

NexGen Energy Ltd. Rook 1 Exploration Camp, Saskatchewan, Canada [2018]

Logging Geologist Logged lithological, geotechnical and radiometric data. Provided reports to senior geologists.

AECOM White City & Swift Current, Saskatchewan, Canada [2017 - 2018]

Management Trainee Assisted with project estimation and project bidding process. Oversaw project controls, document control and supplier communications. Kept details cost, payroll and labour tracking numbers for reporting to upper management.

Professional Societies

Solution Mining Research Institute
