

SHANE SHEFTALL
Geologist/Frac Sand Laboratory Manager

Responsibilities include providing a wide variety of geology and petrophysics to oil and gas companies, gas transmission companies, natural gas and liquids storage companies, banks, trusts and institutional investors.

Education

Texas A&M University (USA) 2017 – Bachelor of Science in Geology

Previous Positions

Texas A&M University College Station, Texas, USA [2015 – 2017]

Student Research and Field Training Created thin sections and analyzed 100 feet of core from Last Chance Canyon, New Mexico. Carbonate research findings were presented to Conoco-Phillips regarding diagenesis of clinoforms. Cut and analyzed 250 feet of core donated by Apache Oil Company from Aneth Field, Utah. Made detailed descriptions of core and interpreted sedimentology, depositional environments and sequence stratigraphy. Had field methods training at Dillon, Montana focusing on geologic mapping, cross-section construction and utilization of geologic mapping techniques for bearings, strikes and dips and steronets.

United States Navy USA [2007 to 2014]

Cryptologic Technician Technical 2nd Class Petty Officer

Nuclear Electronic Technician 3rd Class Petty Officer

Professional Societies

Solution Mining Research Institute