

What is the best way to travel to Battle Conquer Gym?

To get to our camp you will need to fly into Bangkok and travel to Phetchabun. To travel from Chaing Mai please request to the bus information PDF.

Options:

1. Private pick up 2900 baht. Our driver will be waiting for you at airport arrivals and will bring you directly to the camp
2. Catch the first class bus from Mo Chit station to Phetchabun, approx. 300 to 900 baht ask for bus information PDF.

How long is the journey from Bangkok?

It's 3.5/4 hours by car; the bus journey is a little longer, around 5 to 6 hours.

What are the check in and check out times?

Due to our rural location check in is from 6am until 6pm.

Will I have to share a room?

Not at all, at Battle Conquer we provide a private lodge with shower room.

Can I arrive the day before my package starts?

Absolutely! We encourage guests to arrive the day before so that they are well rested to start their programme the following day. For overnight accommodation including meal we charge just 1600 baht / $45 USD

What equipment do I need to bring with me?

We suggest the following: Boxing gloves, hand wraps, general gym clothes, swimming clothes, suitable shoes for hiking, running shoes, toiletries, travel adapter, pool towel, yoga mat.

Do you have equipment to buy?

Yes! We have a fully stocked shop at the camp. All of our boxing gloves are top quality leather and have our own unique Battle Conquer design. We insist on all guests having their own boxing gloves, hand wraps and yoga mats for hygiene purposes. Please ask for prices. For shorter stays there is a glove rental option – 50 baht per day ask staff for details on arrival.

Do you have a laundry service?

Yes, clothes are washed, air dried and folded, the cost is 40 baht per kilo. Towels and bedding are provided and changed on request or every second day.

Are massage treatments included?

We have a massage shop; with the Wellness Package 3 Thai massage treatments are included per week. You may purchase them too, prices are 250 to 300 baht.

Is there a nearby town?

Yes, the town is 10 minutes away from our camp and has everything that you would need such as ATM's, Supermarkets, 7-11's, Pharmacies, Markets, Coffee Shops and Restaurants as well as medical centres and hospitals.

What visa do I need?

Please check with your local Thai Embassy or government websites for the latest visa advice as they are often updates and are different depending on your passport nationality and requirement.

How many other guests will be there?

It really depends on the season but we can have anywhere from 20/30 guests up to 50 guests. Group sizes vary from 10 to 15 up to 20.

What is the best season to visit?

The weather is great all year round; we're lucky that we don't have a heavy rainfall or a monsoon season like other parts of Thailand. Our busier months tend to be November through until March, however this year the summer months are certainly filling up fast!

Do you cater for dietary requirements?

Yes we can cater for most dietary requirements but to be sure please ask before you book your trip.

Will I need travel and medical insurance?

We advise that you have the correct insurances to cover your needs.

Is accommodation included and is it private or shared?

All accommodation is private with private shower room and is included in the package price.

Near to the family home and camp location we have 40 purpose built lodges and 8 larger Saloon Rooms. To be sure to be close to the swimming pool and Muay Thai gym we recommend booking a Pool View or Pool Side room.

Our family hotel is 4km from our camp; this takes approximately 10 minutes by car. We arrange transport throughout the day for your convenience to and from the hotel for free. Located on the edge of Smo That town you'll be closer to some great coffee shops, restaurants and the local markets. As you'll be spending your days at the camp you still soak up our village life and family appeal.
